It was currently reported here last week that Mr. Aultman, of Canton, recently had a severe attack of paralysis, or something akin to it. This report was the basis of the item which appeared in this paper of last week in regard to Mr. A's health. But we are gratified to say that all these stories are exaggerations—unworthy of credence. Possibly he may have been a little unwell, but nothing of a serious nature is apprehended.

Stark county, although immensely wealthy with a larger population than any surrounding county, has eight weekly papers, and one monthly. Columbia county just east of us, has nine weekly and five monthly—in all fourteen. In number it exceeds any county in this region of Ohio. They do a great amount of reading, in Columbiana, for beside supporting their home papers they patronize a vast number of other periodicals. So also do the people of Stark—a great many hundreds of papers and magazines are taken and read here. For some to cities this seems to be the age of reading.

Gen. Wm. Knapp, who has for several years been residing at Columbus, and promoted to a most responsible military position, is now at home on a visit to his relatives and numerous friends. He will remain here a few days, where his acquaintances will welcome him as one of Massillon's deserving and successful sons.

It is said that the Excelsior works will commence operations in a few weeks, perhaps about new year.

Sussex.—Since the courts have decided that owners of poultry and other luxuries have a right to protect their property, even with spring guns, lassos, or any other device, the ingenuity of some parties have been turned in that direction. We were shown a novel little implement, intended to protect fowls, that will take hold on the hand that dares trespass on the roost to which it is attached. The bold adventurer with a vaulting ambition for stealing chickens may find himself an attachment to the frontiers, when he can sing the popular refrain, "I won't go home till morning."

Le Citoyen Americain is the title of a handsome printed small paper, just commenced at Syracuse, New York—the only one of the kind in North America. With four columns on a page, it places side by side alternate columns of English and French—the same reading in each language, which affords unusual facilities for Frenchmen to learn to read English, or English readers to learn French, and translate at the same time. Illustrations are given by publishing stories and other literature in this style. "A more simple way is to print in the different languages in alternate lines. Here is the beginning of a brief essay on sleep.

WESTERN RURAL.

The prosperity of this popular farm and family weekly is unprecedented, and its subscribers may now be found in every "hook and cranny" of the great west. Its plan of two offices and two separate editions, at Chicago, Ill., and Detroit, Mich., has proved so satisfactory to all concerned, that a further extension has been determined on. Commencing with Jan. 1st 1871, editions will be published at Columbus, Ohio, and at Kansas City, Mo. The offices will be opened at these places about Dec. 1st. The Columbus edition will be prepared with special reference to the needs of its subscribers in Ohio, and the Kansas City edition, designed especially for those in the states of Missouri and Kansas. A competent editor will reside at each place. Each edition will contain all matter of general interest that appears in either of the others, while each will give, also, much matter, such as markets, etc., of more particular importance to the readers of each as determined by their locality and respective circumstances and needs. It is only $2 per year.

Magnificent premiums are given for clubs of subscribers, from two to two hundred. Clubs can be raised in every village, school district, or neighborhood. Write for premium list. Specimen numbers sent free. Address H. N. F. Lewis, publisher, at either Chicago, Ill., Detroit, Mich., Columbus, O., or Kansas City, Mo.

Home in the West and How to Obtain Them.

The above is the title of a publication just issued by B. F. Brown of Pittsburgh, Pa., and which is advertised in another column of our paper. This neat little book contains ninety pages, and gives a full description of some of the leading western states, the homestead and pre-emption laws, etc., and should be in the hands of all our readers who have been soldiers, sailors, or marines, ninety days, or more. Enclose fifty cents and a stamp to Mr. Brown, and in return receive a copy of his excellent work.

Prof. Atwater preached a highly appropriate and edifying thanksgiving sermon on last Sunday at the Disciples church. He was listened to with close attention by the congregation assembled to hear what he had to say. As is usual his discourse was marked by that clearness which always characterizes his efforts. His hearers appear to be increasing in numbers, and there is but one opinion as to his abilities in the pulpit.

As may be seen by notices under the appropriate head, our ministers have frequent occasions to take a prominent part at certain union meetings. Our friend, Peter Shauf, has for some years been an odd fellow, but he is an even fellow now, having slyly taken the oath of allegiance on last Thursday evening. A good many others are imitating his example.

C. A. KELLEY.

It is with pleasure I acknowledge the prompt payment of twenty dollars compensation, by the Cincinnati Mutual Health Insurance Co., for two week's disability arising from sickness, and would heartily recommend this company to all wanting reliable insurance and prompt payment of compensation.

Massillon, Nov. 2nd, 1870.

The "Cincinnati Mutual Health Insurance Co." is a company of gentlemen and ladies of Massillon, for their hearty co-operation in organizing an association which promises to conduce greatly to the sociability, as well as the enjoyment of the "Young Folks," to "live host" of the Zieley House, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bugher, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bayless, for most cordial hospitality; and to Mr. Charley Russell for a sufficient number of tablets for the entire season.

In consequence of the arrangements that St. John's Evangelical church is making to fresco the interior of the building, for which a large scaffolding is necessary an erroneous impression prevails among some that the roof is unsafe. This is entirely a mistake—the roof was firmly and securely fixed long since, under supervision of one of the most skillful architects, and is as safe as that of any other house in the city.

The story that Joseph Royer was run over by a team and wagon a few days since, and considerably injured has no foundation, for the man himself was in this office on Monday, well and hearty, and knows nothing of such an occurrence from experience.

Snow fell on last Wednesday to the depth of three or four inches—enough for one sled to venture out. West of us, and not very far off they had something like a foot of snow. On Saturday the sun came out, the snow melted, and the streets were muddy in proportion.

MARRIED.—On the 24th inst., at the house of Mrs. S. Harsh, by the Rev. E. Hingley, Mr. PETER SHAUF to Miss MARY MILLER, both of Massillon.

On the 17th inst., at Cuyahoga Falls, by Rev. Mr. Allen, Mr. FRANK A. JACOBS and Miss SARAH ASPEL.

By Rev. H. Korthue, on the 27th inst., Mr. MICHAEL RUSCHER to Miss MARY KRELL.

On the 15th inst. by Rev. P. I. Buehl, at the parsonage, Mr. MICHAEL EUBERT, of Canal Fulton, and Miss CATHERINE KOPP, of Massillon.

By the same, on the 23d inst. same place, Mr. WILLIAM MEYER and Miss MARY SCHAFNER, all of Massillon.

On the 24th, by the same, at the church, Mr. CHRISTOPHER SNYDER and Miss MARY ANELIA MILLER, all of Massillon.

DIED.—At his residence on the 16th inst. GEORGE MILLER, one of the early settlers and successful farmers of this vicinity, aged about 70 years.

On the 20th inst., a son of GEORGE SNYDER, of Massillon, aged 14 months.

On the 26th inst., daughter of JOHN ABRIGHT, aged 10 years and 2 months.

"Allow to call attention to my Preparation of Compound Extract Buchu. The component parts are Buchu, Long Leaf, Cubebs, Juniper Berries.

Mode of Preparation.—Buchu, in vacuum, Juniper berries, by distillation to form a fine gl... Cubebs extracted by displacement with spirits obtained from Juniper Berries, very little sugar is used and a small proportion of spirit. It is more palatable than any now in use.

Buchu as prepared by druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving dark and gl... decoction. Mine is the color of indigo. The buchu in my preparation (preparation) is the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection it will be found not to be a tincture, as made in pharmacopoeia, nor is it a syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exists. In this, you have a knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation.

Without instance, of being an organ of immense influence, we may with dis-without usefulness in the right di-all the living issues of the day. But its principal business has ever been to so it proposes to continue. Its home record of the ever varying phases of business, of the prosperity of the city,

come after us, and have occasion to ex-
